Police, Town Reach Agreement

Selectmen this week approved the transfer of $29,667 from the compensation fund to underwrite the agreement on a new contract reached between the police department and town.

Also approved was request from the reserve fund for $800 to fund provisions in the new contract for uniform allowance.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark told selectmen that the police department approved terms of the new contract by a vote of 19-3 and that formal signing of the pact would take place shortly.

Bargaining for the police department were representatives of Local 1794A, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO.

The contract period runs from July 1, 1978 through June 30, 1980.

In addition to salary increases, the new contract also provides for improvements in health insurance coverage, as agreed at town meeting.

The salary terms of the contract provide for the present maximum patrolman's salary to increase by $420 as of July 1, 1978 from its present $14,047 to $14,466. On Jan. 1, 1979, the salary will increase another $430 and on July 1, 1979, the maximum will go up another $750, brininging the annual salary to $15,647.

Lyons, Wragg Appeal Presented Selectmen

Special Touch

Three-year-old Kiera Sheehan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. Sheehan of High Plain Road, gives a special touch to cleaning the boards at West School during a back-to-school night and ice cream smorgasbord conducted by the PTO this past week. Other photos, pages 30-31.

An appeal for full payment of legal fees incurred by former School Committeemen John F. Lyons and John G. Wragg, was presented to selectmen Monday night, who accepted the statement given by Mrs. Lyons, on behalf of her husband.

But, the board would only accept the prepared statement and refused to allow comments from a large number of residents who support the Lyons, Wragg appeal.

The two former committeemen, being sued by former Asst. Supt. of Schools Edward P. Regan who was voted out of that office in 1974 by Lyons, Wragg and George F. Olesen, have incurred legal fees amounting to in excess of $12,000, in their defense. The two defendants initially refused to accept counsel appointed by the town, while Olesen used the lawyer named by the former town manager.

Lyons and Wragg sought relief through the courts for the town's payment of their legal expenses, but a Superior Court decision, ruled in favor of the town.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark, with the selectmen, offered the two $6,128 to be shared for the legal expenses incurred, and also $6,000 to Regan to withdraw the suit.

Monday night, Mrs. Lyons told the board of the "cloud of suspicion and embarassment that a law suit involves," as well as the political motivations incumbent in a suit brought before the federal court which the Regan court action involves.

She stressed that she felt her family and Wragg's, had been treated "shabbily in this matter by officials in Andover who have made prior decisions."

She emphasized that they are not asking for any damages for abuse received, vandalism to property, attempts to affect

Teachers would be qualified if they have a college degree with a major in education. Previous teaching experience and familiarity with Andover's instructional programs are preferred.

Aides should have two years of college or instructional aide certification, and previous classroom experience is preferred.

Excellent Foliage Season

Fall foliage in New England is expected to be excellent this year according to information compiled by the Auto Club of Merrimack Valley.

Although a vintage year may not be in the making, foliage colors should be close t0 perfect and better than they have been the past few years, the AAA reported.

Despite the recent cool weather, foliage is not expected to be early unless there is a frost. Foliage colors are influenced more by hours of daylight than degrees of temperature.

So AAA expect peak color to be right on schedule. It's due in the mountains of New Hampshire and Vermont around the first week in October, according to the AAA. Best foliage in the Berkshire Hills of western Massachusetts comes the first two weeks in October. In eastern Massachusetts peak color is generally mid October and later.

The complete Fall foliage cycle takes about three weeks

Lyons, Wragg

business or the harasshment of their children, simply reimbursement for actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred in defending ourselves for decisions made that John Lyons and John Wragg, as elected officials, felt were in the best interests of the town of Andover and the school children."

The board almost went into executive session to hear the statement since the matter was still in litigation.

With the conference room at the water treatment plant filled and the hallway also packed with persons, most all interested in support of Mrs. Lyons, Selectman Susan T. Poore moved that the board go into executive session, citing that the case was still in litigation and to discuss it in public would have a bearing on the matter.

Asked what authority the board had to go into private session, Asst. Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen cited Ch. 397 of the Acts of 1977, discussion of strategy with regard to litigation.

Ralph Wilbur told the board he didn't feel Mrs. Lyons' statement had anything to do with strategy.

Mrs. Lyons said she had no figures in her statement and did not feel the comments would put anyone in an awkward position.

Mrs. Wragg also asked the comments be given in public, "since everything dealing with the case in the past has been public."

Selectman Virginia Cole said she was amenable to hearing the statement from Mrs. Lyons, but "we certainly can't hear from everybody in this room."

Mrs. Poore said she would withdraw her motion, if it was agreed that the statement alone would be all that weould be presented, and this was agreed upon.

Following her presentation, Town Manager Clark said that a statement by the board was released last Friday outlining the position of the board in the case and its attempts to resolve the matter. This included the noting of the $6,000 offer to Regan to withdraw the suit and the $6,-128 offer to Lyons and Wragg to be shared for their legal fees. The manager and selectmen noted that the offer is an effort to hold the defendants harmless as town officials, although they did not accept counsel offered by the town as provided by charter.

Fees paid for Olesen's defense by town-appointed counsel are rreported to be in the vicinity of $8,000.

Also presented to the board Monday night was a five-page 'brief for the defendants' (Lyons and Wragg) prepared by Ralph Wilbur of 2 Meadowbrook Drive.

The statements by Mrs. Lyons and selectmen-manager:

Mrs. Lyons

Thank you for the opportunity of coming before your board and making a few personal remarks.

My husband and I have lived in Andover for 24 years. I have heard John explain many, many times to others the oblication that each member of a community has to assist that community in improving the quality of life, on enriching its cultural or educational caplacity, by giving or one's time and enerty through a position on an appointed board, or as an elected official.

We know, from personal experience, the time, energy and personal commitment that one gives during a term of office. Little did we ever comprehend that in a town like Andover, with its high level of sophistication, intelligence and friendliness, that elected officials could be subjected to such shabby treatment at the hands of a small but politically powerful group.

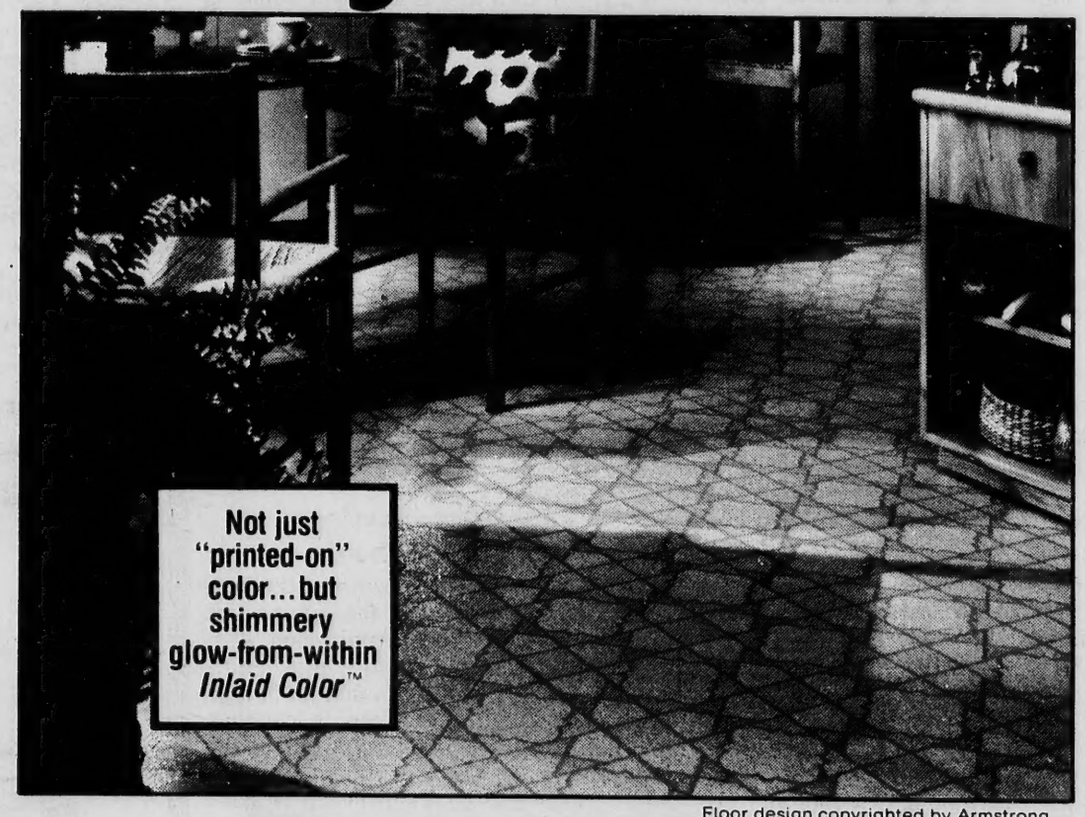

For four years my family and I, and the Wragg family, have been forced to live under the cloud of suspicion and embarassment that a law suit involves. Remember that anyone can initiate a law suit. I have the right to sue any of you. You can sue me. A civil rights suit immediately goes to the Federal District Court level with the associated headlines any federal action produces. There may not be a shred of evidence to justify the suit. What does it matter? It won't be heard for years to come. In the meantime, if it is brought for political reasons, as in our case, it accomplishes its purpose. The defendants are automatically smeared, their reputations are suspect, and when the political mileage becomes no longer worthwhile, the suit is pulled off the docket. And with all expenses paid by the town. Pretty clever!

But is it responsible? Is this the way to make a democracy work?

A democracy demands, by its very

Yom Kippur Services At Temple

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement is the most spiritual and perhaps the most revealing of the sacred days on the Jewish religious calendar. While other Jewish Festivals are of late Biblical date, the Day of Atonement is described in detail in the Book of Leviticus. Ancient as the Festival is, it has continued to remain of crucial importance on the religious calendar of the Jewish people. As in the distant part, when the children of Israel flocked to the Temple court to observe the High Priest in ritual garb go through the ceremony of Atonement, so this very day wherever they may live, Jews continue to attend their synagogues. Twenty-five hundred years have gone by. The desire of human beings and understanding of life changes beyond description, all have brought about a world drastically different from that of Temple times. But Yom Kippur continues to remain an enduring and powerful influence.

The Day of Atonement is a time for fasting. It is a time to become even more aware of our shortcomings, but even more important, a time to resolve, to correct, a time for forgiving, to free oneself from ill will and rancour, to begin life anew with a positive outlook toward fellow human beings. Yom Kippur is a day of prayer and contemplation stretching for more than 24 hours and all of these without partaking of food or drink.

The Yom Kippur Day Services will begin at Temple Emanuel Lawrence on Tuesday night, Oct. 10 with two Kol Nidre Services and will conclude on Wednesday night, Oct. 11 with the sounding of the Shofar at approximately 6 p.m.

Atty. Gerald M. Lewis, president of Temple Emanuel has announced the following schedule:

Kol Nidre — Tuesday Evening, October 10 (Double Service) — Early Service, 6 p.m.; Late Service, 8:30 p.m.

Yom Kippur — Wednesday, October 11 (Double Service) — Early Service, 8 a.m.; Late Service, 12 noon.

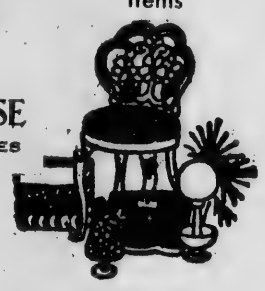

(Single Service) Mincha (Afternoon Service), 4 p.m.; (Single Service) Neilah (Closing Service), 5 p.m.; Sounding of Shofar, 6 p.m.

There will be a sitting service provided for pre-school age children during the hours of worship. There will also be a special children's service for the 1st and 3rd graders during the service hours and this service will be conducted by Joseph Goldman of the Temple Emanuel Religious School.

Eucharist

Sister Maryann Enright, vocation director for the Order of Sisters of St. Joseph, will speak on Eucharist at St. Augustine's School Hall on Wednesday, Oct. 11 at 8 p.m. This program will be repeated on Wednesday, Oct. 18.

Sister Maryann has an MA in Theology from Catholic University and is presently a member of the Archdiocesan Spiritual Renewal Team.

Effectiveness Training Offered

Parent Effectiveness Training will be offerd locally at Christ Episcopal Church, 25 Central St., Andover, beginning Monday, Oct. 23 at 7 p.m. and will run for eight consecutive weeks. Dr. Thomas Gordon's Parent Effectiveness Training, a basic course in how to raise responsible children, is a nationwide program to give American mothers and fathers the skills they need for the world's hargest job — parenthood. Parents today are being blamed but seldom trained. Now they can enroll in Parent Effectiveness Training (P.E.T.) and learn how to raise happy, responsible, and cooperative children.

P.E.T. teaches parents to use the "no-lose method" of family disipline. This special set of skills helps parents to resolve all conflicts between parent and child so that both feel satisfied and both are willing to carry outthe agreements reached. It works with children of all ages, including teenagers, and it reduces rebellion, irresponsibility, selfishness, and resentment, which are so frequent in today's families.

Between sessions, parents begin applying at home the new skills they acquire in class, and many report immediate results, fewer conflicts, more cooperation, closer, warmer relationships with their children, and more open and honest communication between parent and child.

The Parent Effectiveness Training Course will be presented by Crole Trickett, Family Counselor at Christ Church, who has been trained and licensed by Effectiveness Training, Inc. to train parents, teachers social workers, in the methods and skills of P.E.T. Mrs. Trickett holds a masters degree in social work from the Smith College School for Social Work and has been involved in teaching for the past twelve years. In addition to conducting training seminars and counseling at Christ Church, Mrs. Trickett has a private counseling practice.

To register for the Parent Effectiveness Training Course, or for further information, call Mrs. George Trickett between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. weekdays.

Waves

The water in a wave does not move forward; a wave is communicated agitation. As a wave approaches the shore the lower part is stopped by the land, Massachusetts Audubon notes. The top of the wave continues on, eventually falling over as surf when there is not enough water to hold it up. Surf water moves forward as it falls.

Baking Contests Revived

After a lapse of several decades due to lack of interest, Topsfield Fair will have a full-fledged baking competition during the 154th renewal of America's oldest continuous county fair, Oct. 7 to 15. For the first century of the Fair, baking contests were an annual and highly competitive feature. But, as living standards escalated and wives went to ready mixes for bread and pastries, participation waned. Now with food prices taxing most family budgets, there has been a resurgence of home baking and pride in producing the best bread and cookies.

Hundreds of homemakers are expected to compete in classes for yeast bread, frosted and unfrosted cakes, muffins, cookies, dessert bars, one and two-crust pies, finger foods and cake decorating.

Small Farms

Small farms in the U. S. during the mid-seventies began to disappear at a slower rate than previously; Pennsylvania reported 2,000 more farms under cultivation in 1976 than in 1974, Massachusetts Audubon reports.

A crack one-eighth of an inch around a door has the same cooling effect as a missing window pane four by six inches, Massachusetts Audubon says.

Worship & Lutherans

Non-Lutheran Visitors Think Our Services Are Strange.

Our ministers wear ancient clothes, and march around. We have a special churchly calendar, and change our prayers — and even our decorations — by it. We stand up and sit down often. We do much praying in unison and less listening to the minister pray. Etc. We are — as they say — "liturgical." Partly, it's just the way we are. Partly, we think such services are more fun. Partly, we like continuity with the church's past. But mostly, we think traditionally ordered services help us get on with the business: listening to the story about Jesus, working together to bring the needs of the world before God, and joining in God's praise. Lutherans do worship . . . they just don't sit back and enjoy it. Come worship with us.

So you think your kids are going to college?

Think again.

Right now, four years in a private college cost about thirty thousand dollars or more. Within 10 years it'll cost close to sixty thousand. And state colleges will be close behind. If you've got two kids... you're talking one hundred twenty thousand dollars.

Now, if that doesn't shock you, you'd better sit down for this one: Economists figure the costs of an average home will be about the same... one hundred twenty thousand.

Maybe you haven't faced it yet, but it looks like many of us are going to have to make a choice – that house we've dreamed of, or a college education for our kids.

That's a choice no American should have to make.

Now, you can either talk about inflation, or you can come up with new, imaginative, workable solutions to fight it. Here's a damn good one that will guarantee your kids an education without costing you your home.

It's called the Tuition Advance Fund. It's simple. It works. And it can be put into action within two years.

It works like this: after the freshman year, your son or daughter will be able to get a cash advance from the federal government for tuition and room and board at the college they're attending. Up to the full amount needed. This money will be paid back after graduation – by the graduate – at a rate of two percent of their income per year, through U.S. Government payroll deductions.

The graduate never repays more than he can afford. Payments go up only when earnings do. The government always gets its money back. And you don't have to make that dreadful choice between a new home or mortgaging your present home, and your children's future.

This Tuition Advance Fund program is already on its way in Congress. With your vote, I'll be there to make sure it goes all the way.

I want to be the best congressman you ever voted for.

nature, that people get involved and serve. What are citizens in Andover thinking? I believe the last couple of elections have shown they are having second, and third thoughts about running for public office. Why should they put themselves and their families, their property and their reputation, or even their livlihood in jeopardy? Who needs it?

We could engage in a long running argument as to who offered what legal counsel, who refused or accepted legal counsel? Who is legally right or wrong? But what will that accomplish? I feel we have been shabbily treated in this matter by officials in Andover who have made prior decisions.

We are not asking for any damages for the abuse we have received, for the vandalism to our property, for the attempts to affect our business, for the harassment of our children, all we are asking is reimbursement for the actual out-of-pocket expenses we have incurred in defending ourselves for decisions made that John Lyons and John Wragg, as elected officials, felt were in the best interests of the Town of Andover and the school children. Is that a lot to ask?

Town Statement

The Board of Selectmen is in receipt of a communication from Mr. John Lyons and Mr. John Wragg, members of a previous Andover School Committee, requesting that the Town of Andover pay their legal expenses incurred as well as future legal fees in their defense in a law suit brought against them be a previous assistant superintendent of schools, Mr. Edward Regan.

Upon preliminary review of this matter, it became immediately apparent to the current Town Manager and Board of Selectmen that attempting to arrive at a decision based upon themerits of the issues between the former assistant superintendent of schools and three former school committee members would be a protracted and perhaps indeterminable undertaking. Additionally, no clear or beneficial purpose is viewed as being served by such an in-depth and time-consuming investigation. Accordingly, the decision of the Town Manager and the Board of Selectmen is not based upon the relative merits in the lawsuit between Mr. Edward Regan and Messrs. John Lyons, John Wragg and George Olesen. The decision simply addresses a fundamental responsibility of the Town of Andover to defend and hold harmless its public officials, both elected and appointed, from suit arising out of the performance of their duties as Town officials and the need to bring to a conclusion litigation which is of significant expense to the Town of Andover.

In the matter of Regan versus Lyons, Wragg and Olesen the current Town Manager and Board of Selectmen propose to settle this case by making payment to Mr. Regan in return for a withdrawal of the suit. In the matter of paying for the defense of Lyons and Wragg, a court decision has been made indicating that the Town of Andover is not legally obligated to pay for their defense in that the specific counsel retained by them was not authorized by the Town as required by the Town Charter. At the time litigation was first initiated it was not possible to retain the services of an attorney acceptable to both the Town and to Messrs. Lyons and Wragg. Further, once litigation was undertaken, the issue of securing acceptable counsel to be authorized by the then Town Manager was never resolved until the recent court decision.

With respect to payment for legal services in a suit brought against the Town by Messrs. Lyons and Wragg to obtain payment for their legal expenses, the Town Manager and Board of Selectmen consider it an inappropriate expenditure of public funds to pay for the costs of anyone suing the Town of Andover. Accordingly, the Town declines to participate in the payment of these expenses.

In conclusion, and without making judgement regarding the particular issues involved in all matters relevant in the suit brought by Mr. Edward Regan against Messrs. Lyons, Wragg and Oleson, the most economical decision for the Town of Andover is to bring these matters to a conclusion. The Town, through its Town Manager and Board of Selectmen, seeks to provide for the withdrawal of the suit brought by Mr. Regan by making an offer of settlement. The Board authorized the Town Manager to prepare a transfer request in the amount of $6,000.00 to be submitted to the Finance Committee to implement the above decision.

Further, as a show of good faith to provide for the defense and hold harmless public officials of the Town of Andover, both elected and appointed, from suits arising out of the performance of their duties and in recognition of the charter requirement that all counsel retained be satisfactory to the Town, the Town Manager and Board of Selectmen seek to make some payment to Messrs. Lyons and Wragg defraying a portion of their unauthorized legal explenses. Accordingly, the Board authorized the Town Manager to prepare another transfer request in the amount of $6,128.00 to undertake to resolve the differences between Mr. John Lyons and Mr. John Wragg and the Town.

It is the hope of both the Town Manager and the Board of Selectmen that upon implementation of each of the several parts of these decisions all litigation in these matters can be brought to a final conclusion ending any further action or expense being brought against the Town of Andover or any of its officials, prior and present, both elected and appointed.

Andover High Notebook

By Renee Pruneau

The senior class officers are starting to make plans for the coming year. They are currently working on Homecoming Weekend which will be Oct. 20 and 21. On Friday, Oct. 20, there will be the Annual Pep Rally held in the A.H.S. Gym. Saturday morning, the Andover High Volleyball Team will be playing the teachers in what promises to be an exciting, and humorous game. Saturday afternoon at 1:30 the Golden Warriors will be playing the Billrica Indians at the Eugene V. Lovely Field. During halftime, class floats will be viewed and Homecoming Queen and her attendents will be chosen. The finale of the weekend will be a Homecoming Dance held in the A.H.S. Gym.

The senior class is currently working on an exchange between some of the A.H.S. students and the Phillips Academy students. They hope to promote better understanding between the students of the two schools and stop the Townie-Preppie rivalries.

Class officers are also contemplating working for a charity during December. As of yet, they have not decided if they want to work for the little children or the senior citizens. This year's class officers include Paige Whitley, president; Beth Moynihan, v.p., and Elaine Christopulous, secretary/treasurer.

Monday afternoon the halls of A.H.S. emptied quickly as students and teachers alike hurried home to watch the Red Sox-/Yankees Game. The usual lingering teachers and students were not seen in rooms and offices were locked unusually early. Even the custodians got into the "Sox" fever, as they carried radios along on their regular evening rounds, trying to tune into the elusive baseball station.

The late bus was almost empty on this somber, yet exciting day, with only fifteen students riding it. All felt sorry for those who had to go to practices, whether it be football, cross country, soccer, volleyball or field hockey, and miss the important event. The echoing of empty hallways was proof that the outside world greatly affects life at Andover High.

Visible Camels

Camels — hard to see in the dark — have caused so many night-time automobile accidents in the Middle East that all camel owners are now required to purchase phosphorescent harnesses for their animals, says the Auto Club of Merrimack Valley, local affiliate of the AAA.

East Junior High News

By Jennie Caffrey

School has only been in session for a few weeks but already activities are in full swing here at East. There have been three field hockey games. The first, played against Billerica was won with a score of 4-0. Outstanding players were Kathy Kinsella who scored two of the goals, Amy Starensier, scored one and Patty McGann scored one. Rachel Petrella, Missey Lucey, Julie Barry and Kathy Kinsella assisted.

The second game was played against Andover West Junior High. Again, East won, 2-0. Both goals were scored by Kathy Kinsella with Rachel Petrella and Patty McGann assisting. Defenseman Laurie Southworth played an exceptional game.

On Friday East tied Methuen's field hockey team 1-1. Lisa Stratton played an excellent game.

The freshman football team has had one game so far. This was played against Wilmington and ended in a 0-0 tie. Outstanding players for East were Carmen Scarpa, Ted McDonald, Brian Moriarty and Larry Soule.

On Sept. 28 a ninth grade social studies class, taught by Mr. Finnigan, went to the Harvard Law School to serve as jurors in a mock trial for the fourth-year law students. The students were divided into two juries and listened to the four-hour-long trial. The juries came back with majority votes that were exactly opposite.

Dave McGillivray, the man who jogged cross-country visited our school to speak to the seventh grade class. He presented a slide-tape show of his run of 3,542 miles and gave an oral presentation. Miss Harms, career education specialist, said the reason for bringing Mr. McGillivray here was "to present a model of someone who reached his goal through great self-determination."

East has lots of determination this year and lots of hope that this year will continue to be as good as it has started out to be.

The lowest point in the continental United States, Death Valley, is 100 miles from the highest, Mt. Whitney.

The Public Forum

On Discontinued Road

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

May I take this opportunity to call the attention of the voters of Andover to an article in the Sept. 21 issue of the ANDOVER TOWNSMAN which proposes discontinuing some 1,700 feet of Sunset Rock Road. About 1,400 feet of this borders land which I own. This is one of the oldest roads in Andover, and the engineer of the Land Court states that this is what is termed an ancient highway and that the abutters have long ago acquired rights. This would mean that I would be deprived of access to my land over a town road. Not only is this illegal, but it unjustly discriminates against a property owner who has paid taxes for over fifty years knowing that this was a town road. I am sure there is no demand by the voters of Andover for this to occur. Obviously this is being instigated by a small minority of a minority. It is high time that someone stood up for the taxpayers' property rights.

Sincerely,
Harry K. Jenkins,
45 Ballardvale Road

Pupil-Teacher Ratio

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

A recent article in the TOWNSMAN stated that the student/teacher ratio in the first grade at Sanborn School is 27.5:1 and that the school committee did not plan to add a teacher even though this ratio exceeded the guidelines of 23 plus or minus 4. The Sanborn first grade was the one class with which Dr. Seifert was concerned. Although understandably reluctant to speak out, the principal and first grade teachers have had to admit that they are unhappy with the situation. After three weeks of school, first grade at Sanborn is just starting the planned program due in part to the large classes.

Anyone who drives on Dascomb Road can see that the Sanborn situation is not static. New homes will be occupied throughout the school year. In fact, the ratio has already increased to 28.5:1 (it would be 19:1 with the additional teacher).

At last Spring's Town Meeting, the residents of Andover voted a sizeable appropriation for school renovations. An adequate job could have been done for less, but the residents insisted on first class schools to maintain our high standards of education — a clear message to the school committee.

Based on figures in last week's TOWNSMAN, the cost of adding one teacher would be approximately one quarter of 1 percent of the school budget. In fact it would be less because some additional costs for aids are already planned.

I can not comprehend why the school committee does not take the necessary action when the public demands quality.

Why should the education of these Sanborn children be risked?

The Tax Burden

Open Letter to Town Manager
Jared S. A. Clark:

I have been dismayed and upset by the apparent poor attitude surrounding the tax rate in Andover and the explanation by Town officials.

This year's tax rate was announced by radio station WCCM, who interviewed Assistant Town Manager Cohen. He was heard to say the rate was "only going up $4.00", and that the rate could have gone up more. He explained that the "loss of state funds caused the increase!"

Also, in The Andover Townsman, Assessor William Russell said "A little sharpening of the pencil" kept the rate down. Again, he blamed a loss of state funds anticipated for various school programs. Worst of all, Mr. Russell was quoted as saying the tax rate was set "in an effort to keep the increase within the rate of living increases"!

I submit this type of thinking has lulled town officials into ignoring the public, who after all, are the taxpayers. Evidently, officials are explaining that increases are acceptable if they are within the trend of other costs. Blaming the increases on an outside influence is all too easy and indicates our own fiscal house does not have the necessary controls to keep expenses down or the income to support our expensive habits.

Every year, the Cherry Sheet figures on State Disbursements change. They are never the same from year to year. What is anticipated one year doesn't come to fruition; the next year more money is distributed than expected.

These two factors; 1) lack of proper control on expenses and 2) changing State funds; should be cause for alarm and caution in making a budget. Our aim should be in bringing the tax rate down, not in allowing it to go up the same as the cost of living. Find ways to cut expenses instead of proposing more spending programs. Don't assume the same amount of income will be around next year from this year's tax rate and this year's Cherry Sheet.

We look to you as Town Manager to set the tone for more fiscal responsibility. Nobody said a government job is easy, but you will have a lot of grateful residents when you do a good job. Real Estate taxes are becoming too big a burden to pass over lightly with glib phrases.

Postal Service

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

May I give my comments concerning dissatisfaction with our Postal Service in Andover recently by a small group of people considering Andover's population of 26,050. Evidently these folks do not understand the rules and regulations relative to the operations of the National Postal Service. Some people are not aware that the National Postal Service is an Independent Company — headed by Postmaster General William F. Bolger — who is doing exceedingly well in his position as Postmaster General — Thanks, keep up your good work in the future.

Because the National Postal Service is an Independent Company, the Federal Government — President — Congress — House of Representatives, can not tell Postmaster Bolger what to do or what not to do — they can, however, submit recommendations — hopefully they will be useful ones.

In reference to our Andover Postal Service people need to understand the pick-up — process — sorting, according to routes and delivery procedures. In reference to our 15¢ stamp, some people complain about the cost — when one can send a letter to California and it is delivered in two days. Where else can people get such service for 15 cents. Something to think

Regional Library Gets Notice

The regional library service has been formally notified that it must vacate the theater building on Essex street on or around Nov. 15.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark made the formal notification last Friday after meeting with regiona library officials and offering alternative locations for the service to remain in Andover.

The decision, which has met with considerable opposition from Andover library officials and friends of Memorial Hall library, is to make way for location of the community development department at the theater building and improved quarters for Andover Haven.

Clark met last Friday with Mary Heenihan, administrator, and other officials of the state regional library service, to explain the town's need for the space now used by them and for which the town receives rent.

The manager also told of the alternate locations, including the old pumping station at Haggett's pond, but said he received no indication as to whether any were acceptable.

The library service paid for renovations at the theater building and has been paying $9,000 annual rent for use of the theater building.

Town Manager Clark this past summer informed selectmen of plans to house the community development department in the theater building, which would thus provide room for installation of new data processing systems in the present town hall.

To be located at the theater building would be such offics as planning, health, conservation and agencies dealing with the town's growth.

This would also eliminate the need for either additions to the present town hall, or construction of a new municipal office building.

A federal grant of $33,000 for renovations of the theater building to accomodate the Andover Haven, could be applied to making the first floor of the property adaptable to the needs of the senior citizens, the manager pointed out.

Clark's plans were affirmed by selectmen, and reaffirmed this past week, when the board felt it necessary to issue a statement of clarification with regard to the acquisition of the theater building and its use by the library.

This week, the board decided to withdraw an item for presentation at the October town meeting asking for $30,000 to renovate the pumping station building, should the regional library decide to locate there.

Clark said the board took that action in view of no indication from library officials that it might suit their needs, plus a policy of the board not to seek major funding at the special October session.

The statement issued by the board this week:

In order for the taxpayers of Andover to understand the controversy presently being addressed in the press between supporters of the use of the Theater Building by the Regional Library and the Town administration, the Selectmen wish to state the following facts.

The Theater Building and property going with it, i.e., the land between the Theater and and the Library and some empty land beahind the Theater was purchased by the town in 1975 for the following reasons:

1. It was for sale at a reasonable price.
2. It was adjacent to Town-owned land (the Library).
3. Future plans for Library expansion had always called for expansion to the west (behind the Library) and up until that time the Town had only been able to purchase land to the north (towards the gas station).
4. Town use could immediately be made of the property; parking on the empty land and free rental given to two Town organizations who were paying rent to private owners, i.e., the Haven and the veterans' organizations.

5. A source of income was suggested by the Library Director. Space could be rented to the Regional Library who were warehousing their books in North Reading.

The Town Meeting agreed to these reasons and the property was purchased. At no time did the Library supporters claim to wish to use the Theater Building for Library expansion. They have stuck to their beliefs that an expansion should be under one roof as is shown in their requests for architects' funds to design an addition.

At the present time the most pressing problem of the Town of Andover is the control of growth (as stated by the Selectmen and Town Manager at the annual Town Meeting). In order to effectively do this a co-ordination of existing town departments is taking place, and it is necessary to give them and the citizens who must confer with them adequate space to operate. Right now in Town Hall it is not possible to confer with the Director of Health or any member of the Board of Health exceplt in a room with four or five town employees telephoning, typewriting, conversing with other citizens, trying to make out reports.

The same situtation is true if one should want to discuss a business matter with any one of the inspectors: building, electrical, plumbing, etc. The Planning Board has no private quarters and those of the Conservation Commission are not big enough to seat the whole commission at one time. There is no public hearing room where citizens can sit.

The Town Manager inherited this problem as well as Andover's prime concern with control of growth. He has examined the alternatives: 1. Building an addition to Town Hall. 2. Renting space for Town Offices. 3. Using already Town-owned office space for this department, i.e., the Theater Building. The Selectmen agree wholeheartedly with his solution — No. 3.

A further problem facing the Town Manager was a grant of $33,750 obtained by the former Town Manager to improve the Theater Building for use by the Town's elderly. Unfortunately, after this grant was received, it was found that in order to make use of it, an elevator must be installed in the building if the elderly are to use the second floor. The grant is not enough to pay for the elevator and so $80,000 is necessary to have the use of a $33,750 grant. The Selectmen voted not to ask the peopole for this money in April. The Town Manager, however, tried to find a way to use this grant; and it can be used if the elderly use the first floor of the Theater where no elevator is necessary. Whether there was need for additional space for Town Offices or not, the Haven should have the first floor of the Theater Building. The Selectmen feel a much stronger responsibility to the Town's elderly than towards the Regional Library.

The Selectmen have been told that the second floor of the Theater Building is not strong enough to store books which was why the Regional Library was not put there in the first place.

The Town Manager has spent countless hours of his well paid time trying to accommodate the Regional Library people in other Town-owned buildings.

The Selectmen feel the solutions proposed are sensible, economical and efficient. The purpose of buying the Theater Property remains the same — to provide land on which the Library may some day expand and to provide inside space for Town functions without having to pay rent.

Won't Add First Grade At Sanborn

The Andover School Committee Tuesday night turned down a request for another first grade teacher at Sanborn School.

More than two dozen Sanborn parents had turned out to ask for a "better deal" for the two first grades that now have teacher-pupil ratios of 29 to 1 and 28 to 1, and left with the previous promise of more aide time instead.

While generally emphathizing with the parents, the committee determined after an hour's discussion that the only "equitable" solution was the status quo, because first grades in some of the other schools are just about in the same boat.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert reported that the systemwide average for first grades is 27.5 to 1.

However, Seifert said that if a first grade enrollment reaches the magic number 30, he would have to recommend another teacher.

Lester Tomkinson, 61 Argilla Road, led the delegation of parents, contending that the class sizes of 29 and 28, "based on sound pedagogical theory," were "excessive." He said he was particularly concerned because the first grade is the foundation upon which future schooling is built, and that it is not possible to deal with the "whole child" under the circumstances.

He said he had looked at the building going on in the district and talked to prospective tenants, and could only conclude that the enrollments would "very, very likely increase."

He said the parents were also seeking a third teacher, not just more aide time as provided by the school committee three weeks ago. Aides, he said, were just not the same thing.

Seifert responded that many of the system's aides are actually qualified teachers, and that with even though the 28 to 1 ratio isn't the most desireable, he felt that when the classes are divided, for instruction, the pupils will be getting a reasonably "fair shake."

Seifert noted that the first grade ratio at Doherty is 28½ to 1, and that while the ratio is 26 to 1 at South, ability grouping ttere has created one class of 29 and one of 24.

He also said that despite the school committee's attempt at equality of serevices, Sanborn had already knocked out a language lab and math lab to acnommodate more clesses and that there's only one special room, the music room left in addition to the gym.

He also took the opportunity to make another pitch for multi-age grouping. In some of the schools, he said, one grade is very low in numbers and the next grade very high. "If we looked at seven and eight-year-olds," he said, "instead od first and second graders, we could come up with some interesting groupings."

A pilot program in multi-age grouping was actually started at Shawsheen this year, and there is one second and one third grade, plus one second-third combination.

Chairman David Ahouse said Tuesday night's question issue was the question, "Are we being as fair as we can between schools?" Sanborn was definitely on the high side, he said, but equal to Doherty. "It may not be desireable", he went on, "but it's not inequitable."

Pilot Study Program Begins

A pilot program in study skills, designed to help pupils to better organize their time and efforts began last night with more than 550 pupils from Grades 5 through 8.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert told the school committee Tuesday night that more than one-third of the pupils in those grades have enrolled, and that there will be a least one study skills class in each elementary and junior high school. He said many parents had also opted to sit in on the sessions.

The program was devised by Seifert and Media Director Annetta Freedman over the summer, and Seifert complimented Mrs. Freedman on an "extremely thorough" job. He said he didn't know any other community that's approaching the study problem this way.

He said that many pupils manage to scrape through high school, but many don't succeed in college because they don't know how to organize their time and work.

The program will be held for five more Wednesday nights, from 7 to 8:30, and there will be a feedback session at the end of the second school marking period.

Last night's session dealt with scheduling time, from the time one gets up in the morning. Future classes will teach — understanding assignments, note-taking, outlining, and test-taking.

The classes will be self-contained, with the students doing exercises in class and no homework. There will, however, be informational handouts at every session.

While the program hadn't been planned for the high school, there has been enough interest on the part of high school students and parents to warrant a survey to determine if the program should be expanded there.

Seifert also indicated it will be run again in the spring.

Back To School For The Goodies

West Elementary School youngsters and their families flocked back to school last Thursday night, for the PTO's ice cream smorgasbord and open house. Proceeds from the popular event will be used to fund field trips and other functions for the school.

Clockwise, beginning bottom left: Richard DeAngelis tops off Laura Wilson's sundae; parents get acquainted with new teachers and classrooms; Denise Morey enjoys the treat while father Frank looks on; Randy Moreau takes the last bite and finally, Kit and Gail Roberts dig in.

Bypassing Principles and Precedents

Somehow or other we think the time has arrived to set aside the dangers of precedent-setting, upholding principles and all that is involved in holding up the finalizing of the Lyons, Wragg, Regan court case.

Former School Committeeman John F. Lyons and John G. Wragg have been offered partial payment of the legal fees they encumbered as defendants in a suit brought by former Assistant Supt. of Schools Edward P. Regan who they voted out of office in 1974.

Lyons and Wragg have incurred legal fees in excess of $12,000. The town is offering them $6,128 to be shared by them, based on the fact that they initially refused counsel offered by the town.

Another defendant in the case, former Committeeman George F. Olesen, who accepted counsel appointed by the town, has had his obligations paid, a cost reportedly in the vicinity of $8,000 or more.

Regan, who initiated the civil rights suit against the trio, seeking $150,000 in damages, is to be offered $6,000 by the town, which is to resolve the issue without judging the merits of the case.

Mrs. Lyons appeared before selectmen Monday night and was allowed to read a statement appealing to the town to pay for all of the legal expenses incurred by her husband and Mr. Wragg.

Supporters of Mrs. Lyons were not allowed to address the board since the matter is still in litigation, the board said, initially suggesting that the matter should be subject of an executive session, due to the matter still being before the courts.

Lyons and Wragg lost a suit before the Superior Court asking the town to pay their legal expenses recently and have appealed the decision. The judge found for the town in the case, while noting that lack of provisions to indemnify public officials was a deterrant to public service in Andover.

Any attempt to balance the rights and wrongs of this issue from its inception to the present, would be virtually impossible. The pros and cons of the decision which initiated the suit have been debated endlessly. Nothing further can be accomplished by review or continued examination of the actions and the aftermath.

What is plainly obvious is that deep feelings continue among those on both sides of the issue which actually stemmed from the back to basics vs. modern or open class type of public education.

A contention which has been offered, that some taxpayers may object to their funds being used to pay for the Lyons, Wragg legal costs, can be countered by those on the other side who would object to any payments being made to Regan.

It is agreed that the charter provides the manager with the right to appoint counsel. It must be further agreed that Lyons and Wragg, for their own reasons, chose initially not to accept the lawyer provided.

But, now the time is ripe to permit a resolve of the matter, provided sufficient financial relief is provided the two defendants in the civil rights case.

The only alternative left, should their appeal to a higher court on the legal fees case be lost, will be to go before town meeting and ask for reimbursement, which will only result in stirring up the entire issue again.

It does not seem improper then to bend a little in an effort to get the matter resolved once and for all.

New teachers' desks have been purchased for the principals of the Indian Ridge and John Dove schools and for Miss Duval's room at the Bradlee school.

Singleton M. Moorehead of Andover, a graduate of the Harvard School of Architecture, has been appointed assistant in the reconstruction of Williamsburg, Virginia, which is to be restored to its colonial setting.

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Thomas Tofliski residence at 69 River Road Thursday morning. Andover fire fighters had to summon assistance from Lawrence to quell the stubborn blaze.

25 Years Ago — October, 1953

I have lived for 14 years next door to the Andover P.O., so feel I know their operations quite will. Have had contacts with employees from Postmasters down. Also have Case No. in Boston. Question — Does anyone else in Andover have one? I would like to know.

I'm dealing with the Andover Post Office employees from Postmasters down. I found them to be efficient and dedicated, thus serving we the people in Andover well — which is swell.

A trait — they are gentlemen — polite to customers, which is a great trait to have in these troublesome times — with so many people rude and do not respect the rights of others.

Congratulations — to Andover postal employees for giving we the people in Andover excellent service over the years.

U.S. Marine Recruiters Employ Unsavory Tactics

WASHINGTON – The Marine Corps proudly proclaims that it wants a "few good men" to join the ranks. But we have gathered evidence that Marine recruiters have been employing unsavory and illegal tactics. As a result, the Marines are stuck with thousands of unfit recruits.

Some of them had stand-ins take their intelligence and physical exams for them. Others were admitted after the recruiters had falsified their school and criminal records.

Officially, the Marine brass claim the problem is not serious. They blame it on a few overzealous recruiters. But Senate investigators see it differently. They have heard the horror stories of recruiters who claim they were bullied and threatened into increasing their enlistment quotas.

One former Marine recruiter told of receiving intimidating calls in the middle of the night. Another recruiter told us that he had never met an honest recruiter in the four years he had been signing up men.

The recruiters who have been brave enough to blow the whistle have been rewarded with ugly threats, menial jobs and ruined careers. The Marine Corps, meanwhile, is desperately trying to keep a lid on the exploding scandal. But the congressional investigators intend to blow the lid wide open.

Festival Frauds: Fairs and carnivals have long been part of the American scene. But behind the cotton candy, kewpie dolls and amusement rides, there is a sordid side to the carnival business.

The traveling shows are often conduits for stolen goods and narcotics. Some of the rides are unsafe. But the most widespread vice is gambling.

Those games of skill on the midway are often fronts for multimillion-dollar gambling operations. The con men who run the games can change the stakes from stuffed animals to cash at the throw of a dart.

The games, of course, are rigged. The unsuspecting victims are fleeced. One game alone has been known to clean up $95,000 in a night. The take is seldom reported to the Internal Revenue Service.

It is the responsibility of local police to investigate the seedy carnival operators and arrest the offenders. But this seldom happens. Now we are beginning to learn the reason.

Apparently the carnival operators are generous in handing out gifts and cash to city officials. In Cleveland, for example, a grand jury is considering charges against some city councilmen who allegedly accepted cash payments to allow illegal gambling at carnivals.

There have been similar investigations in other cities. In Atlanta, for example, the FBI is investigating the connection of city officials to a wide-open carnival. The evidence was gathered by an FBI informant who posed as an operator of gambling games.

The informant, Gene Sorrels, called on city officials. They were unaware that he had a microphone in the heel of his shoe, with FBI agents nearby, taping every word.

A transcript reveals that one high official was supposed to be paid $39,000 ostensibly to provide security at the carnival. But he promised on the tape that the 10 officers who policed the carnival would make no gambling arrests.

The pious voice of a civil rights activist was also recorded. He promised to use his influence to protect the carnival in exchange for cash.

A city councilman is also heard on the tapes asking for $20 per foot and 20 percent of the take for letting the gambling games operate. The councilman also offered to arrange a liquor license if the carnival operator wanted to open a bar.

Under the Dome: Thanks to the taxpayers, U.S. congressmen are able to live like royalty. They get free medical treatment, low-cost meals, cut-rate haircuts and a whole host of little extras that average Americans can't afford. Now they have given themselves a gift they can share with their constituents. It's an expensive, hard-cover picture book called "Art in the United States Capitol." Each representative will receive 50 free copies to pass out; each senator will get 100. Ordinary citizens can purchase copies from the Government Printing Office at $12.50 per copy.

– U.S. lawmakers do not seem too excited about the possibility of life on other planets. They recently slashed $2 million from the federal budget that would have financed new efforts to find living creatures in outer space. The project was scuttled after Capitol Hill's resident efficiency expert, Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., selected it for his "Golden Fleece" award. This is a dubious honor which the senator awards to programs that waste the taxpayers' dollars.

Campus Spies: Harvard University is at loggerheads with the CIA over the agency's "infiltration" of the nation's oldest campus. Harvard officials don't want the CIA to engage in any covert recruiting, and the agency is insisting it can recruit in any manner it pleases. The college authorities are hoping Congress will step in and legislate an answer to the dilemma.

Your Hair Today

Loss of hair isn't always caused by aging, genetics or illness. Too much vitamin A can cause hair to fall out in addition to causing abdominal pains and dry skin. People who lose a large amount of weight in a short time (20-30) pounds within eight weeks) are likely to start losing their hair two to three months after the weight loss. Though they may continue to lose hair for several months, it eventually grows back. Crash-dieting is especially detrimental to hair. When there is an insufficient caloric intake, the hair follicles may just stop growing for several months prior to falling out.

At SUPER CUT HAIR SALON, 93 Main St., 475-3711 we carry a complete line of Redken products that have been scientifically formulated for the beauty of your hair. If you have been considering a perm to take you through winter we feature the new Redken Trichoperm System for fine, or limp hair or hair that needs body. Our prices are very competitive and our staff are all professionals. Open: Mon. — Sat. 9-5, Thurs. and Fri. til 7.

Andover Booters Tied Twice

By Ben Bram
Andover High School

The talent-laden Andover High School Golden Warrior soccer team let two possible victories slip away from them in games at Lawrence and at home aginst Chelmsford last Wenesday and Saturday. In both games the Warriors held slim 1-0 leads and outshot their opponents, and in both games their opponents tied the game up and survived pressure from the Warriors late in the game.

In Wednesday's game at Lawrence, Andover scored first early in the second quarter on a penalty kick by David Yates that eluded the Lawrence goalie Domingo Afinti. It was the first goal of the season for Yates, who is a vital cog in the Andover offense.

Lawrence tied the game up later in the same period on a "header" by Jose Garcia off of a corner kick from Jose Gonzales. As the kick crossed the penalty area, Andover's goalkeeper, Jeff Nicastro leaped high to grab the ball, but Garcia stepped in the way to head it into the net.

The Warriors put on the pressure during the fourth quarter but were turned away each time. It was a heartbreaking decision for the heavily favored Warriors.

Andover Coach David Amondsen felt that the Warriors "controlled the ball for over seventy percent of the game."

The Warriors have scored only nine goals in seven games. The reason for this lack of firepower is not because of a lack of opportunities, but because either the Warriors can't combine their swift moves with good shots or just because of a lack of breaks.

During the Lawrence game the defense and goalies excelled. The defense has been the one consistent strong point for the Warriors. Andover and goalie Jeff Nicastro are very lucky to have fullbacks Andy Powell, Greg Moss, Danny Merrigan, and reserve fullback Bob Wilkins playing so consistently well. The halfbacks, Eric Ketzler, Eric Brandt and Peter Price, aid the defense and have made some fine passes to the strikers.

Two of the three tri-captains, Gary Cohen and Tom Keefe join David Yates and Rusty Serbagi at the starting striker positions. The strikers have scored seven of Andover's nine goals. The other tri-captain, speedy John Kinsky, has the talent to play any of the positions. His ability makes him a valuable commodity as s starter or as the first man off the bench. The Warriors have great depth with Kinsky, Wilkins, midfielders Steve Luby and Steve Rosen and starters David Shroeder, Mark Reed, Joe Kearns and Thom Wiseman.

In the Chelmsford game, both teams had numerous opportunities but the defenses and the goalies rose to the occasion. On one particular play, Andover goalkeeper, Jeff Nicastro, made an outstanding save on a soft tip shot. Nicastro, who was unable to get to the crossing pass dove half the length of the net to deflect the shot around the goal post.

At five minutes and twenty seconds into the third period, Andover striker David Yates took a pass from Tom Keefe, swerved to the right to get a better angle on the net, and knocked the ball in for a 1-0 lead.

Chelmsford scored about seven and one half minutes later when Jeff Coursen connected after taking a pass from Jerry Scannell.

Later in the game, Chelmsford goalie Loren Wass, who had bobbled many saves during the game, dropped an easy one and dove after it. He grabbed the ball and fell to the ground. As he fell, he droped the ball again and Warrior junior Mark Reed slammed it into the net for an apparent goal and a 2-1 lead. However, the referees ruled that the ball had been called dead before the shot because of an injury to Wass. There was some controversy as the Andover team and their supporters felt that the ball was called dead after it was in the net.

Andover finished with strong pressure on Chelmsford including a near miss on a beautiful shot from midfield by scrappy halfback Peter Price with 35 seconds left in the game. The game ended in a tie as neither team could score again.

The game featured fantastic performances by the defenses and the goalies. The two teams seemed to be evenly matched and after the tie the Warriors are one point behind Chelmsford in the Merrimack Valley Conference standings. Andover's record is 4-1-2 while Chelmsford's is 5-0-1.

Next week Andover plays St. John's Prep (Oct. 4) and at Wilmington (Oct. 9). An added plus for Andover should be the return of full strength by tri-captain John Kinsky who was injured in a tough victory over Billerica and played well in the first half with limited mobility.

Anxious Signal

Dave Nardone signals a touchdown for Andover High's Golden Warriors, while officials wait to unpile the Wilmington-Andover Gridders to verify the score. The Warriors scored a 21-14 comeback win in a thriller last Saturday at Eugene V. Lovely field.

Warriors Down Wilmington In Final Seconds

By Rick Harrison

The Andover High football team hasn't lost its flair for the dramatic...or is it traumatic?

Last Saturday the Golden Warriors spotted visiting Wilmington High a 14-0 lead midway through the third quarter, but then rode the talented arms of quarterbacks Manny Silva and Tom Walsh to an exciting 21-14 comeback victory before several hundred fans at Eugene V. Lovely Field.

The payoff to the entire game was a 20-yard touchdown pass from Walsh, who replaced Silva for just one play, to All-Conference wide receiver Paul Farnham with 21 seconds remaining on the clock.

The stirring rally brought back memories of numerous other AHS reversals in recent seasons.

There was the tense 21-20 classic victory over Salem High in the 1974 Eastern Mass. Division II Super Bowl, the subsequent 7-3 triumph over Plymouth-Carver in the '75 Super Bowl, and last year's 14-10 regular season triumph over Wilmington.

Last Fall Andover was trailing Wilmington 10-7 when quarterback Dan Welsh unloaded a 55 yard touchdown bomb to Rick Collins on the final play of the game. Collins was dragged down by two Wildcat defenders just as he crossed the goalline.

Last Saturday's win, the Warriors second straight, left them in a four-way tie for first place in the Merrimack Valley Conference along with Chelmsford, Dracut and surprising Methuen. All are 2-0-0.

Overall Coach Dick Collins' crew now sports a 2-1-0 record, while tough luck Wilmington slipped back to 1-1-0.

Passing Attack

Walsh's clutch strike to Farnham, who caught 11 passes Saturday for 173 yards, capped an afternoon that saw Silva hit 19-of-33 aerials for 254 yards.

Silva, bouncing back from a shoulder injury sustained against Wakefield two weeks earlier, hit just two of his first nine tosses (two intercepted) before catching fire and completing 17 of his last 24 attempts.

It was fortunate that the Warriors' air game was on target, because Wilmington held AHS to eight yards net rushing which included a woeful minus yards (-18) on the ground in the second half.

Slow Start

The firsrt quarter brought back thoughts of the opening game against Wakefield, when the visitors played a ball control type of game and blanked Andover, 7-0.

Wilmington allowed the Warriors only four plays furing the entire period for a total of eight yards, while the Wildcats in turn were running off 18 plays.

On their third possession, the visitors took control at their own 26 yard line and marched steadily to the Andover 38.

Wilmington junior quarterback John Robarge, himself a very dangerous passer, completed a pair of short tosses to Sal Carbone (12 yards) and Tim Moran (9 yards) to key the drive.

On the second play of the second quarter, however, Moran fumbled with Ray Lynch recovering at the Golden Warriors' 38.

After an exchange of punts, Wilcats' junior defensive back Dave Woods made the first of his two interceptions of the afternoon.

Warriors

The pass from Silva, intended for Farnham, was overthrown and picked off at midfield. Woods retraced the ball 25 yards to the Andover 26.

Robarge wasted no time putting the Cats on the scoreboard, unloading a 26 yard strike to Moran who made a fine diving catch in the endzone.

Chris Briggs, whose 37 yard fieldgoal last year had almost proven to be the margin of victory, toed the conversion for a 7-0 Wilmington lead at 4:20 of the second stanza.

Threats Choked

Andover took Dave Sugrue's subsequent kickoff and drove from its own 19 yard line to the Wilmington 40.

Key plays in the quick march were a 29-yard third down pass completion to Farnham, and a 15 yard third down strike to Mark DeFranco.

However, faced with a fourth and inches situation at the Wilmington 40, the Warriors were unable to convert and surrendered the ball on downs.

Moments later, following a Briggs punt, AHS retained control at is own 20 yard line and moved to the Wilmington 11 in seven plays.

Silva ran 10 yards, the longest burst from scrimmage all afternoon for Andover, and Manny then unloaded a 39 yard bomb to the elusive Farnham along the right sideline.

Farnham was hauled down by the ever-present Woods, but two plays later he snagged a 14 yard aerial for a first down at the Wilmington 17.

Silva ripped off six yards to the 11, but then an incomplete pass and a five yard sack brought up a fourth-and-9 situation at the 16.

Silva fired a pass to DeFranco over the middle inside the Wilmington five, but Tim McCann drifted over at the last instant and knocked the ball loose to kill the threat.

The Wildcats moved the ball for a couple of first downs; and time ran out with the visitors around midfield.

Andover held a slim 138-128 edge in total yardage for the first half, but trailed 7-0.

Wildcat Strike

The Golden Warriors took the second half kickoff and went nowwhere, losing nine yards back to their own 11 where Dave Nardone was forced to punt into the brisk wind.

The kick carried out to the Andover 38, from where Wilmington initiated an eight-play drive for its second and final touchdown.

Robarge saved the march twice with third down passes of 15 and 13 yards to Dave Woods, advancing the ball to the AHS 10.

Robarge then scrambled for seven yards, and the stocky Moran burst through the middle for the final three yards and his second TD of the day.

Briggs' conversion kick boosted the spread to 14-0 with six minutes to play in the third quarter.

Up to this point Andover had gone more than six periods at home without scoring, and Wilmington had yet to surrender its first points of the 1978 season (20-0 first game winner over Austin Prep).

Fighting Back

Bill Stahley returned Sugrue's ensuing short kickoff to the Andover 43, and that started the Warriors' first touchdown drive of the afternoon.

It took Collins' crew nine plays to move 57 yards.

Silva hit Farnham with a seven-yard pass, then spotted DeFranco for an 11 yard gain.

A screen pass to Nardone was good for five yards, but a nice 18 yard toss to Nardone on the following formation was erased by offsetting penalties.

The run-and-shoot was beginning to click, however, and Silva kept things going with an 18 yard toss to junior halfback Mel Berger.

Silva ran for three yards to the Wilmington 15, and he then rolled out for a 15 yard TD pass to Ed Collins who made the grab in the left front corner of the endzone.

Coach Collins elected to go for two points, but Wilmington defensive tackle Bob Lurvey had other ideas and dropped Silva as he faded back to throw the conversion pass.

The six points reduced the Andover deficit to 14-6 with 1:18 left in the third quarter.

Tying It Up

The rivals traded pass intercaptions immediately after the Golden Warriors' touchdown, as Nardone picked off a Robarge toss at midfield; and one play later Woods swiped a Silva toss.

The Wildcats, with Moran's 13 yard sun supplying the impetus, got down to the AHS 36 where they were faced with a fourth-and-8. Robarge hit Woods with a pass, but it carried only seven yards and Wilmington had to surrender on downs at the 29.

The clubs traded punts, with Nardone booming a 50 yard beauty, and the Warriors were back in business at the Wilmington 38 with 5:44 to play.

Silva, with the skill of a surgeon, began picking the Wildcats' secondary apart. He found Farnham with a 17 yard pass to the 21 and, aftr a running play lost five yards, he hit Farnham again for 10 at the WHS 16.

Senior end Bill Lucey suddenly arrived on the scene, snatching a nine yard pass at the seven.

Another aerial to Farnham brought the ball to the one foot line, and from there Silva snuck over to cut the score to 14-12.

Silva rolled right and fired a perfect two-point conversion pass to Ed Collins, tying the game 14-14 with 3:40 to play.

Sealing the Win

Wilmington panicked and fumbled the ball away at its own 20 after the kickoff.

Phil Russo threw Silva for a two yard loss, but a 10-yard pass to Farnham carried to the 12.

Silva was sacked for a four-yard setback by Mike Russo, bringing up a fourth-and-6 situation at the 16 yard line with 2:11 remaining.

Silva also happens to have a tremendous kicking leg.

He had been drilling kickoffs through the endzone all day, and in practice he's booted some pretty long fieldgoals.

He lined up for a 33-yard fieldgoal try here (with the wind). The kick had plenty of distance, but it sailed wide and the score was still knotted at 14.

Robarge picked up eight yards on a couple of rushes, but once again the Wildcats were forced to punt. Briggs' boot, into the wind, carried just 16 yards to the Wilmington 45.

There was 1:01 to go, and Silva used up just 15 seconds in Successive pass completions of 13 and 12 yards to Bill Lucey.

On first down from the 20, he drifted back to pass and was popped pretty hard. The hit shook Silva up slightly.

Collins, wanting to keep the ball in fieldgoal range and Silva in good health, yanked his senior quarterback and inserted junior Tom Walsh.

Walsh had done a superb job seven days earlier, filling in for Silva at Tewksbury and engineering an 18-2 Andover triumph.

The poised back-up signal-caller made the most of his brief appearance, firing down the middle to Farnham.

The little guy with the big moves and the sticky fingers reached up between two Wilmington defenders to catch the ball in stride at the goalline.

Once in the endzone Farnham held the

Awards Presented At Banquet

The Andover Babe Ruth baseball team recently held its annual season-ending awrds dinner at the Butcher Boy restaurant in North Andover.

Highlighting the evening was the presentation of a number of awards and trophies.

Following are the major award winners for the 1978 season, during which time the locals went 20-11-2 overall and won the Greater-Lawrence League playoff championship.

Most Valuable Player: Bob Heidt.

Most Valuable Player, Canadian Trip: Fred Foote.

J. Thom Lawler Memorial Unsung Hero Award: Wayne Merola.

Most Improved Player: Steve Rathbun.

Rookie-of-the-Year: Jeff Demers.

Sportsmanship Trophy: Ed Powers.

Highest Average, overall season: Steve Rathbun, .341.

Highest Average, regular season: Jim MacMillan, .400.

Special plaques were also presented to Jon Pelletier (Mr. Clutch Award for 20 RBI and most game-winning hits); Wayne Merola (33 stolen bases) and Rich Grimm (Spirit Award).

Bob Heidt and Fred Foote also received plaques commemorating their outstanding seasons as pitchers. Among other accomplishments, Heidt went 7-2-1 with an 0.29 earned run average and three shutouts.

Bob Heidt was also cited for his three-year .312 career batting average in Babe Ruth baseball.

Team treasurer Dick Heidt received a special plaque for his innumerable contributions over the past three summers.

The J. Thom Lawler Award, named in memory of the Merrimack College hockey coach who was also president of the Andover Babe Ruch Baseball Association for several years, was initiated this year.

The award is presented to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of hustle, determination and spirit that Lawler instilled in his hockey teams and admired in the Babe Ruth baseball players.

Also included with the three top awards were $20 gift certificates to area sporting goods stores.

Among the over 50 players, parents and coaches in attendance was Glenn Verrette, former Andover High standout athlete who is now a top defensive back in football and an outfielder in baseball at Holy Cross College.

Verrette was an assistant coach with the Ruth team this past summer.

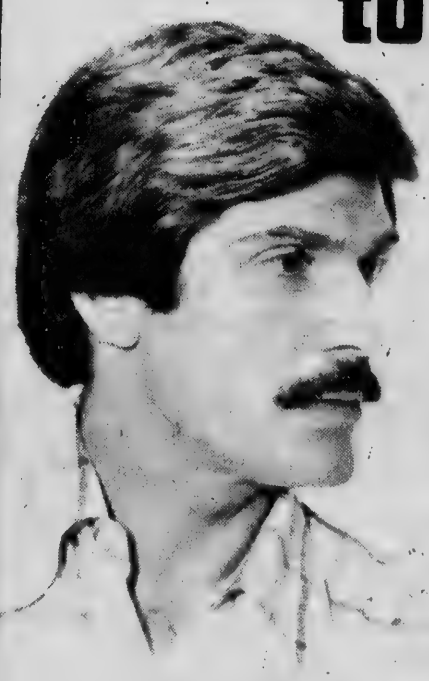

The Andover team also held a pair or recent tryouts, primarily for 13-year-old candidates, and the turnout was encouraging.

A similar series of tryout sessions will be held next Spring, after which time the 1979 squad will be selected.

Tonight, at the Greater-Lawrence Regional school, the Andover players will receive playoff championship trophies at the league awards banquet.

Junior Grid League Results

Indian Ridge Vikings, 7

In the first game of the 1978 season the Vikes upended the Colts. The Colts had first possession and didn't get anywhere. The Vikes took over at the Colt 48 and behind some good running of Larry Cuddy got to the Colt 21. The Colts wouldn't give in stopping the Vikes there. The colts took over and drove 20 yards before giving the ball up. The Vikings behind Cuddy and Billy Baldwin drove to the Colt 10. Then on the first play of the second quarter, quarterback Billy Vickers hit right end Scott Zimmerman for a T.D. strike. Vickers then again hit Zimmerman on the same Pattern for the conversion and the Indian Ridge crew had a lead they never relinquished.

The Colts were stopped cold on their first possession after the T.D. When the Vikes took over at the Colt 39 it looked as though they might score as a Vickers pass was just overthrown to Larry Cuddy. The Colts took over but before they could get anything going time ran out. The B teams came in for the 3rd quarter and traded the ball twice without either threatening much. The only real threat was a 15 yd. run by Viking fullback Chris Lyons. The A teams came in for the 4th quarter. The two teams traded the ball three times with the Vikes showing some domination but neither threatened. The Vikes couldn't get past the tough Colt defense, but time ran out on the Central crew. Leading the offense for the Vikes were Steve Duncan, Charlie Ziegenbien and B teamer Bob Salisbury. Sparking the Indian Ridge defense was Mide Redgate, Todd Sleath, John Duffy, B teamer Chris Lyons. Leading the Colt offense was Jeff Fox, Shaun O'Shea, B teamer Robbie Carpentier. For the tough Colt defense was John Deeran, Mike Surrett, B teamer Chris Bartley.

Bancroft Dolphins, 18
West Andover Redskins, 0

The Dolphins stopped the 1977 defending champs 8-game winning streak with a sound 18-0 victory. In the first and second quarter nobody mounted a real scoring threat as the second teams traded the ball several times. The B teams came in for the third quarter, traded the ball once then Dolphin Q.B. Dave Starensier rambled 55 yards to paydirt. The rush failed. The Skins got the ball and quickly fumbled it away. The Dolphins took over deep in Redskin territory.

After six plays on a second goal from the fourth, Dolphin back Chris Cormier bolted over. The rush missed. The Skins trying desperately to get back into the game had to go to the air. Dolphin Chuck Arrigo picked of an errant pass and ran 45 yards to the end zone. The conversion failed. The Skins got something going as Q.B. Robbie Harrison hit passes to Grams and Stabile. They got the ball to the Dolphin three but on the last play of the game couldn't get in. Dolphin offense was led by Dean LoPresti, Ralph Dellatto, B teamer David Starensier. On the defense for the Skins were Jim Wiseman, Chris Cormier, B teamer, Tim Macdonald. For the Skins offense, Robbie Harrison, Bob Stabile, B teamers John Hopwood. For the B defense were Mark Grams, John Hopwood, B teamer Tim Miller. Mark Nardone had two booming punts, one for an amazing 55 yards.

Next week's doubleheaders:

2:30 p.m., Dolphins vs. Colts

Several teams in the League won victory points for the first time last weekend, a sure sign that the players are improving their skills as well as learning to play together as a team. Brief results of last week's games follow:

Honeybees

There were no honeybees in North America until the early 1600s when Europeans brought them for honey production. Butterflies, moths, bumblebees and other insects had pollinated crops, Massachusetts Audubon says. Now 80 percent of all pollination is provided by honeybees.

Kicker At Rhode Island

Pete Reilly of Andover, a graduate of Andover High, is on the varsity football roster at the University of Rhode Island. The one-year letterman, a senior, is a kicker.

Warriors

ball aloft in triumph, signalling the Wildcats' demise.

Silva boomed the conversion kick through the uprights to make it 21-14 with 21 seconds left.

Silva slammed the subsequent kickoff through the endzone, and the Wildcats were able to run off four plays.

Robarge completed a seven yard pass to Woods, fired an incomplete pass, was sacked for a seven yard loss by Jim DePiano and Ken Dillon, and unloaded a bomb to Woods that fell incomplete as time expired.

Stats

Andover finished with an edge in first downs (13-10), yards passing (274-106) and total yardage from scrimmage (282-200).

Six different Warriors caught passes. Trailing Farnham were Lucey (3-for-34 yards), DeFranco (2-for-26), Collins (2-for-18), Berger (1-for-18) and Nardone (1-for-5).

Nardone punted four times for a fine 39.5 average, and Silva drilled four kickoffs for an average of better than 55 yards per boot.

Wilmington had the edge in yards rushing (94-8) and in scrimmage plays (64-62).

There were only three penalties walked off in the game for a total of 25 yards.

Warrior Defense

The Andover defense, which has allowed just three touchdowns and 23 total points in three games, had many standouts.

Among them were Len Driscoll, Ray Lynch, Dave Oldaker, Ed Collins, Bill Stahley, Jeff Hudgins, Bob Surrett, Dan Grams, Mark DeFranco, Dave Nardone, Jim DePiano and Ken Dillon.

Schedule

Andover will be favored this Saturday afternoon when it travels to Reading for a 1:30 p.m. MVC clash at Austin Prep.

The Cougars will enter the game 0-3, and they are still looking for their first points of the season after successive shutout losses to Lawrence High (21-0), Wilmington (20-0) and Chelmsford (42-0).

Andover's Joe Cammaratta is a sophomore two-way starter for AP, playing both at offensive halfback and linebacker.

The biggest Conference game this weekend has Dracut and Chelmsford, while Methuen is at Wilmington, Central at Lawrence and Billerica at Tewksbury.

Wilmington should give Methuen trouble, and there is a distinct possibility Andover could be one of only two unbeaten MVC teams by Saturday evening.

A week from Saturday, the Golden Warriors will be at Methuen, and the next home game will be Oct. 21 when Billerica comes to town.

Stress Test Scheduled

Fifty area men and women will do some huffing and puffing at the Andover-North Andover YMCA on Haverhill St., as they run through the paces of a spohisticated exercise stress test.

The Andover Y in cooperation with the Lawrence YMCA, is conducting a cardiovascular Health Screening and Exercise Testing Program on Sunday, Nov. 19, at the Andover Y building.

The test clinic will include medical exam, electrocardiogram with continuous monitoring during exercise and coronary heart disease risk factor analysis.

A followup will include a confidential written interpretation of results for each participant, a group meeting concerning significance of test results and, for those requesting it, individual consultations with a cardiologist or exercise physicologist and the mailing of reports to the personal physician or participant.

The clinic is being conducted by the New England Cariovascular Health Institute of Cambridge under the directon of L. Howard Hartley, M.D., and J. Alan Herd, M.D., both of Harvard Medical School.

The public service project is open to all adults and cooperative arrangement between the Y and the non-profit Health Institute of Cambridge permits a fee substantially lower than that currently being charged for the test alone.

A maximum of 50 individuals can be tested and processed in the one day, with each person scheduled for a specific starting time.

Registrations are presently being taken at either the Andover Y or the Lawrence Y. Questions may be addressed to a physical director at either YMCA.

Migration Missing

In the fall Clara Waterman of the Peabody Museum of Salem follows the Monarch butterflies' migration to Eastern Point. The butterfly fanciers who join her class learn to band the feathery wings of these fragile creatures so their long flight to Mexico can be studied. The sight of a tree on Eastern Point with hundreds of Monarchs roosting like brilliant leaves is not to be forgotten. This year's Migration Day was planned for Saturday, Sept. 30. But nature does not always follow mankind's schedules. This year there are no butterflies.

INVESTING IN LAND

One of the nice things about investing in land is that it rarely presents management problems. However, since it will produce no income, it should be bought only if you are financially able to carry the debt.

For the typical investment, you have to put down cash amounting to 25% to 50% of the total cost of the land, with regular payments on the remainder until the entire debt is paid. But if you prefer to pay taxes on a long-term capital gain, rather than ordinary income, then land can be an attractive investment.

The key to a good land investment is predicting land needs of the future. Here is where the experience of a good, local Realtor comes in. He has intimate knowledge of community needs, and can forecast, far better than the layman, what will be required for future land use and the best areas for growth potential.

We are proud of our performance. With our THIRTY DAY LISTING POLICY, you will be given an opportunity to evaluate us immediately.

For maximum action and service, list your home with an agressive agency that can't afford to waste time!

Are you overlooking an extraordinary way of life?

These people are.

They're residents of Millpond. An extraordinary community of contemporary townehomes in historic North Andover.

At Millpond, a firm regard for the traditions of the past exists side by side with a healthy respect for the joys of modern living.

Take the townehomes themselves. Like the land they occupy, they are bold, rugged, and natural on the outside. Gracious, expansive, and fully convenient on the inside.

There are tennis courts here. A swimming pool. A private beach and boat dock on historic Stevens Pond.

There are nature trails. And ski trails. And riding paths. All on 22 of the most beautiful acres of New England countryside you've ever seen.

The Millpond lifestyle begins at $78,800. Why not come out sometime, and take a careful look at this carefully planned community.

To get here, take Rt. 495 to the Mass. Avenue exit (North Andover). Turn left on 125, and one-half mile later, turn right on Pleasant St. Millpond is one-quarter mile down, on Stevens Pond. From Rt. 128, take 93 North to Exit 15 (Rt. 125 to North Andover). At 114/125, turn left. Bear right at first traffic light, staying on 125. Turn right on Pleasant St., about 1½ miles down. Millpond is a quarter of a mile away.

Former Music Head Indicted

Edward P. Grigoli, former music program director for Andover schools, was indicted Thursday on charges of stealing between $10,000 and $20,000 worth of town property.

The case was presented to the grand jury Sept. 8, but the indictment was kept secret until Grigoli, who retired to Florida last spring, appeared in Salem Superior Court last week.

Grigoli was accused of stealing materials, most of them from the school music department, over a period of six years dating back to 1972.

If convicted, he faces up to five years in prison.

A routine inventory check of the school music department originally turned up the irregularities, and an audit requested by the school committee and a police department investigation turned up additional evidence.

During the inventory check last winter, a trumpet and an electric organ valued at $800 to $900 were missing. When confronted by Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert about the items, Grigoli said he had been keeping them at home because he feared vandalism at schools.

Grigoli was asked to retire, and left the system April 30. Seifert said then that Grigoli, who is now 55, had been considering an early retirement for some time and had been looking in Florida.

Grigoli was subsequently asked about several thousand dollars more in music equipment, and he turned in a total of equipment valued at $9,000.

No date was set for the trial, and the case was continued to give Grigoli's attorney, Thomas Collins of Methuen, time to obtain transcripts of the grand jury session.

Sewer Tie-Ins Approved

Connections to town sewer lines were approved Monday night for two major industries, paving the way for construction in Lowell Junction and West Andover industrial parks.

Selectmen, sitting as the sewer commission, approved installation of sewer and water mains within Lowell Junction Road and Burtt Road for Instrumentation Laboratories of Lexington, which is planning to develop some 50 acres north of the Gillette plant in Lowell Junction.

Also approved was installation of a temporary sewer line in the West Andover industrial park for Polaroid Corporation which will locate a 200,000 square foot light assembly plant for photographic film there.

Instrumentation Laboratories will locate a sewer force main and water main within Lowell Junction road and also construct a sewage pumping station to be build and retained by IL.

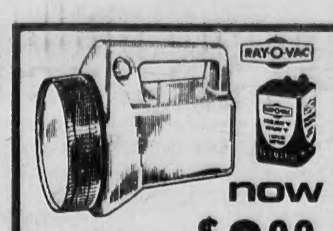

The mains and pumping station will be accepted for ownership and maintenance by the town, following certification that all utilities have been built in accordance with town specifications.

The temporary sewer connection for Polaroid, was approved in order to allow Arkwright Boston Insurance, owners of the industrial park to sell additional large parcels of land before fixing the location of a permanent sewer line.

A master plan for development of the industrial track has been supplied the town and will be followed, Charles Doblen of Arkwright explained Monday night.

But the location of the permanent sewer line could have a detrimental effect on some large industrial parcels, thus the request for the temporary line at this time.
